☐ To apply for a private education loan, students can choose any lender funding private student loans and complete an online application with the chosen lender.

☐ International students may choose any lender of their choice funding private education loans and complete an online application that includes a creditworthy U.S. cosigner or they may investigate home country resources.

PLEASE NOTE: The terms and conditions of federal student loans or assistance may be more favorable or beneficial than the terms and conditions of private education loans. If you decide to borrow a private educational loan, please be advised that students have the right and ability to select the education loan provider of their choice, are not required to use any of the University’s suggested lenders and will suffer no penalty for choosing a lender that is not included in the listing. For more information on suggested lenders, please visit: http://sfs.columbia.edu/financial-aid/private-loans.

Please note that changes in your enrollment status, including adding and/or dropping classes or withdrawing from the University, can impact your financial aid award. Please contact the Office of Student Financial Planning at sfp@columbia.edu if you plan on changing your academic program and/or the number of credits for which you are enrolled at any point during the school year.
